

Sample letter to the editor – Georgia Runoff

Dear editor:

Georgians need to realize what is at stake in the January 5 Senate runoff elections.

Liberal Democrats will control both the House of Representatives and the White House for the next two years. If they win control of the Senate as well, they will have unchecked power.

They can pack the Federal courts, seize full control of our health care, open the borders to illegal aliens and shower welfare benefits on them, strangle our energy industry, defund our police, and cut back on our armed forces.

We must not allow this to happen.

We can block the radical policies of the Democrats by electing David Perdue and Kelly Loeffler on January 5.
